

"We the People" Who are We? Who aren't We? Why is it Important?

Porter Davis Professional Speaker Author

Porter@PorterSpeaks.com

415-272-5955

<https://www.PorterSpeaks.com>

Porter is a Zelig - generating and intersecting with the big ideas of our times.

--James Daley

LinkedIn

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/porter-davis-033594a>

Speaking Topic

"We the People" XXI

In 1787 our Founders established a Democracy. In a Democracy the POWER is in the people. We get this POWER by our right to vote. I will discuss this right and how it must be shared with all the people in the United States, And, how we might update our Constitution and create a Bill of Human Rights, using twenty-first century thinking!

Bio

Porter is a visionary, with a BA in Political Science, studied Law, worked on two Presidential Campaigns, chaired an Assembly Campaign, set up and ran many groups, researched; The Magna Carta, The Mayflower Compact, The Virginia Bill of Rights, The Declaration of Independence, The Articles of Confederation, The United States Constitution, The Emancipation Proclamation, and The Gettysburg Address.

"Porter takes us to new heights. Just imagine how life could be, with a new Bill of Human Rights."

-- Karen Cowell

"I loved it, 'We the People' XXI, read every word, if only, but I know how important it is to hold that picture in our hearts."

-- Sandra Lankester

Offerings and rates

"We the People" XXI

Buy the book on Amazon:

<https://tinyurl.com/446wuu8b>

Presentations:

Up to 60 minute presentation

Time/rate: Negotiable